What does recognition mean?

Academic recognition is the recognition of (foreign) qualifications

- 1) for admission to a study programme offered by an accredited higher education institution.

- 2) for exemption from parts of a study programme offered by an accredited higher education institution. (max. 50%)

What does recognition mean?

How about the recognition of (foreign) qualifications

* as stand-alone (e-)learning (for Life Long Learning)?

* where multiple micro-credentials offered by multiple accredited higher education institutions form a coherent study programme?

e-VALUATE

The e-Valuate consortium is composed of representatives from the ENIC-NARIC network: NARIC Denmark, NARIC Lithuania, NARIC Norway, NARIC Ireland UK NARIC and NARIC The Netherlands. Other partners involved are the Vice-President of the Lisbon Recognition Convention Committee, the European Consortium for Accreditation in higher education (ECA) and KIRON. A higher education resonance group has been formed to provide feedback on the position paper, including the following institutions: Delft University of Technology, Kaunas University of Technology, Nottingham Trent University, Smartlearning Denmark, University of Limerick and University of Rostock. The e-Valuate project is co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union.

Practitioner's guide for recognition of e-learning

To be able to make an informed recognition decision within reasonable time limits, the project proposes a procedure based on seven criteria:

1. Quality of the course
2. Verification of the certificate
3. Level of the course
4. Learning outcomes
5. Workload
6. The way study results are tested
7. Identification of the participant
